I have studied in the Germanistik faculty for both winter and summer semesters. When I came here I had no expectations. I just wanted to improve my German and live abroad for a short period of time. But I ended up very positively surprised.

In the first place, my coordinator has made everything so easy for me that I will always be grateful. Not only my coordinator has helped me, but also the teachers with whom I didn't have any problem. They were willing to help me and give me the credit points I needed for extra work.

Secondly, talking about the campus, it has been a pleasure to be part of it for almost one year. Having all the faculties mixed is a great idea, as you can meet people that are studying very different subjects. There are a lot of cafés and libraries which are all really nice. And let's talk about the dining room, this fantastic place where the food is good and cheap and you can spend a nice time with friends while eating. In general, the university is really really nice, the buildings are clean, well-equipped, luminous and surrounded by beautiful landscapes. For example, one of the entrances has its own lake and swans. Moreover, it is very well connected by bus so it is very easy to get to uni.

In addition to all of this, as a student of Germanistik, the subjects have been very enriching. I liked the way that they are taught, as you are not supposed to do an exaggerating load of work, but at the same time, it is very stimulating.

In conclusion, having the opportunity to study at HHU has been an incredible experience which I recommend to anyone who is willing to live abroad. The place is beautiful and the people are very nice, so I really encourage you to do it!
